FOREIGN FILM FESTIVAL AT UNIVERSITY OF LOWELL

LOWELL, MASS. - Major European films will be featured in the 1979 Film Festival sponsored by the language department and Italian Club of the University of Lowell. These award winning Spanish, French, German, and Italian films will be shown, with English soundtracks or subtitles, in the visual media center of O'Leary Library on Wilder Street, Lowell. Each evening a faculty member from the language department will introduce the film and lead a short discussion afterwards. Free and open to the public, the feature length films begin at 6:30 PM.

The upcoming schedule includes LAZARILLO (Spanish), February 15; BELL' ANTONIO (Italian), March 1; VUDDENBOURGE (German), March 15; HIROSHIMA MON AMOUR (French), March 29; VIRIDIANA (Spanish) April 12; LE TERRA TREMA ( Italian), April 26; PADRE PADRONE ( Italian), May 3; and A SPECIAL DAY (Italian), May 10. For more information call the campus language department at 452-5000, extension 445.
